

Communicating to Influence Buying Decisions

Adapt Your Selling Style to Maximize Sales Results

The ability to communicate skillfully is perhaps the most important ingredient for success in today's workplace. Powerful communication skills can propel you along your path to career success. Use questioning and active listening skills to assess and identify your customer's communication style.

Modify your own style to build commonality and rapport effectively and ultimately influence buying decisions. Develop your self-leadership, as well as assess and adapt to differing personality styles and values with CPISA's Communicating to Influence Buying Decisions. This interactive program will teach you how to improve your communication style for maximum clarity to achieve greater sales results. You will be required to complete an online personality type questionnaire, which offers you insights into your communication style and provides a framework to help you develop effective strategies to assert yourself in order to persuade others.
